

Labelprint24 and Packaging Warehouse join All4Labels

Zeithain / Hamburg (Germany), 16th November 2021 – All4Labels Global Packaging Group, a leading international manufacturer of packaging solutions, as well as a pioneer in digital printing, is continuing its global growth strategy through its acquisition of European online packaging players Labelprint24 and Packaging Warehouse. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Adrian Tippenhauer (CEO of All4Labels) and Stefan Harder (Managing Director of Labelprint24)

Adrian Tippenhauer, All4Labels' CEO: "With this transaction, we are investing further in digitalisation and innovative solutions in the packaging sector. We are very pleased to welcome the Harder-family and the entire staff of Labelprint24 and Packaging Warehouse as new partners and members of All4Labels. With Labelprint24's innovative business model - state-of-the-art digital printing technology with a high degree of automation and smart distribution via the internet - and All4Labels Group's extensive knowledge and infrastructure, we will continue our success story together. I would like to thank all parties involved for their valuable support in this transaction."

Stefan Harder, founder and owner of Labelprint24, will stay invested and will continue to manage this business and, thanks to his many years of experience and market knowledge, contribute to intensifying the position as well as the online activities of All4Labels and orienting them towards the future. "We are very pleased that by joining the All4Labels Group we have the opportunity to present ourselves on an international platform, to further expand our online business and to use commercial and technological synergies in the process. Together we can drive digitalisation and sustainability in the packaging sector and take the already existing structures to the next level with our innovative ideas, flexibility as well as high speed. We are sure that both our employees and business partners will benefit from this transaction."

The acquisition of Labelprint24 and Packaging Warehouse is another important step for All4Labels in building a leading group of online packaging service providers. In the future, the combined companies will offer an innovative platform and a wide range of first-class packaging solutions from which customers will benefit internationally.
